

Self-reflection table

Statement	Totally agree	Agree	Neutral	Disagree	Totally disagree
I like my job
I am sure that I have the necessary skills to teach
I feel excited to go to work
My pupils inspire me
I have a talent for teaching
Teaching is a boring activity
I have little or no control over my pupils and the classroom
My work challenges me
I put a lot of effort in my teaching
Teaching helps me learn new things
I feel I am wasting my time when I teach
The work of a teacher consists of routine activities
I do not have the freedom to make my own decisions
I receive full recognition for my successful teaching
Teaching offers potential for professional growth
I get along well with my colleagues
Teaching provides for a secure future
Teaching provides limited opportunities for advancement
Working conditions in my school are comfortable
I am well paid in proportion to my ability					