

Statements toward a self-reflection

Statement	Totally agree	Agree	Neutral	Disagree	Totally disagree
Assessing the existing digital competences to help identify areas of strength and areas that need improvement.
Research and identify digital tools and resources that can support the CLIL experience. Look for tools that align with the content and language objectives of CLIL
Providing training and professional development to ensure an effective integration of digital tools in CLIL classroom
Designing learning activities that scaffold the development of digital competences for pupils

Exploring and integrating appropriate digital tools and resources that align with CLIL objectives
Fostering digital literacy and responsible use to teach pupils about digital literacy, online safety, and responsible use of digital resources
Collaborating with technology experts as they can provide guidance on integrating emerging technologies into CLIL lessons and help address any technical challenges that may arise
Providing constructive feedback on pupils' digital work to help them improve their digital competences
Continuously reflecting on the integration of digital competences within CLIL lessons
Seeking feedback from pupils and colleagues to identify areas for improvement					